

Additional Materials Instructions

Feeling Fans

Use the Feeling Fans in pairs to play an emotions barrier game. Sit the children opposite each other with a barrier between them. Each child will have a feeling fan.

One child starts by choosing an emotion on the fan and showing the same facial/body language to their partner. Their partner then uses the fan to find the correct emotion.

Partners could then discuss an occasion when they may have felt this way.

